VOL. V. NO. 129.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, MAY 30, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

HARLEM OPENS TODAY.

This afternoon the first racing of the year at Harlem will take place. Through the unbounded exercise of remarkable energy and untainted expenditure of money, visitors will find accommodations surprising in view of the destruction of the track buildings by fire but a few days ago. Furthermore, they will see good horses run. The certainty of racing here has drawn owners from tracks east and west until the supply of horses of fair class is all that could be reasonably expected. All that Harlem can accommodate are at the track or have been assigned quarters that will soon be occupied, while there is an overflow that Hawthorne's ample stables furnish a temporary home.

Racing will be carried on at Harlem for two weeks and then Hawthorne will come in for a like period. The two tracks will thus alternate through the season. As secretary of the new organization that will conduct racing at Hawthorne, Harry Kuhl will make the conditions and assign the weights, and a better man for the place could not be found. Altogether the present outlook is for a fairly successful local season of racing.

T. H. Griffin's string, fresh from Morris Park, is at Harlem in charge of Trainer Albert Simons. The horses now here are Egbert, Latch Key, Florinel, Oxtard, Passe, Maharajah, Izuk and Neuberger. Three more of Griffin's horses will arrive in a few days and Tony Hamilton is here to ride for the stable.

W. J. Smith came up from St. Louis with the speedy filly Queen of Song, Vice Regal, a good performer in the mud, and Barrabas, who was a fair two-year-old. McCann will do his riding.

Tom Berry brings up Cherry Leaf, Clay Poynter and several two-year-olds from St. Louis. F. J. Kelley arrived at the track from the same place with Graziella, Facade, Victor Sum, a maiden three-year-old, and old Beverly.

Middleton & Jungbluth have a strong stable at the track in charge of Arthur Newsum. Among the lot are the fast mare, Eugenia Wickes, Afamada, Marcato, Monongah, Amyntas, Ostra and six highly-bred youngsters.

R. Bradley has a big string at the track in charge of Trainer Flipper. Most of the lot are youngsters by Blitzen and Aloha. Thomas Barrett is on hand with a very strong stable. Bing Binger, now in good shape; Hanan, a recent purchase; Winslow, Tentons, Josephine B. and the two-year-olds, Tommy O'Brien, Zeralda, Barrack, Beidenweig, Mono Murphy, Della Ostrand and Brownie Anderson.

The Lake Street Elevated road has made arrangements to carry passengers to the Harlem track direct. Trains will leave State and Lake streets at 1 o'clock p. m., 1:10, 1:20, 1:27, 1:32, 1:39, 1:46, 1:53. They will make stops at Madison street and Wabash avenue, State and Van Buren streets, Pacific avenue and Van Buren street, Madison street and Fifth avenue, and Randolph street and Fifth avenue.

On the Metropolitan Elevated trains will arrive at Pacific avenue on the loop at 12:59 o'clock, 1:11, 1:29, 1:41 and 1:53. These trains will pass the other loop stations at intervals of two minutes. They will connect with the suburban electric cars running to the track.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The remaining stakes of the Latonia Jockey Club will be run off on the following dates:

Saturday, June 3—The Latonia Oaks, for three-year-old fillies.

Tuesday, June 6—The Clipsetta Stakes, for two-year-old fillies.

Saturday, June 17—The Sensation Stakes, for two-year-olds.

Tuesday, June 20—The Tobacco Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward.

Saturday, June 24—The Latonia Spring Prize, for three-year-olds.

Acceptances for the Club Members' Handicap, one and one-quarter miles, to be decided at the St. Louis track Saturday, June 3, are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Jenkins is in St. Louis. This boy developed very suddenly. Speaking of his work in the closing week at Oakland the Chronicle said: "This boy hung up a record that will not be beaten for many a long day. Last year Tod Sloan succeeded in riding eighteen winners in a week, but Jenkins rode no less than nineteen during the past week, which is certainly a proud record for a boy who could hardly get a mount two months ago."

Last week San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman says: "Little boy Reiff has gone to England to ride. He left last Sunday in company with Enoch Wishard. Mr. Wishard took Mary Black, Joe Ullman, Stamina, Ailyar, Paul Griggs and Caneolo with him and will, besides these, train Richard Croker's horses in England. Lester Reiff will do the heavy riding for the stable."

Banastar was assigned 110 pounds for the Suburban Handicap. By winning the Brooklyn he gained a penalty of twelve pounds, so that his impost for the big Sheepshead Bay handicap is 122 pounds. Even with that weight up he is likely to be the favorite if all goes well with him in the meantime.

The famous English broodmare Lilly Agnes, the dam of the imported stallions Ormonde, Rossington and Arklow, was destroyed recently on account of old age. She was foaled in 1871 and was by Maccaroni—Polly Agnes, by The Cure.

Constructor Allen last Monday looked over the ground for the proposed new racetrack at South San Francisco, and pronounced it a splendid location for a first-class mile track. Work on the same will probably be commenced in June.

Sydney Paget has sold to T. Hitchcock the brown gelding Linstock, 4, by Logic—Blue Stocking, on private terms. Linstock has been schooled over the jumps and is said to be promising for that style of racing.

The three-year-old filly, Admiration, recently purchased by Mr. W. C. Whitney, was cheap enough at $5,000, as she is about as fast as anything in training.

His Royal Highness is a very speedy colt, but in all of his races has shown that he is either not thoroughly trained or is deficient in stamina.

Wm. Murry pulled out for Saratoga Sunday May 21, with Rey del Tierra, Three Forks, Tarhill, Flamora, Kickumbob, and several two-year-olds.

Jockey Bullman is in New York, where he will ride for Ed Purser with a second call belonging to W. B. Jennings.

Winner—B. f, by Linden—Crocket.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second all out. Found ran her race in front. Crocket was under restraint all the way and is cherry ripe now. It will take a good horse to beat her. Fervor ran his race. Basquill was a trifle outclassed. Sir Rolla stumbled at the start. Scratched—12259 Meadowthorpe, 102.

Crocket, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 3. Found, place, 1 to 2; show, 3 to 10. Fervor, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Basquill, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c, by Morello—Early Rose.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second all out. The result was quite a contrast to the last race in which the trio met. Eddie Jones must have sulked that day. He did not today, however. Forget Not ran an improved race. Rebel Jack ran to his notch. Scratched—(12173) George Lee, 105.

Eddie Jones, place, 1 to 4; show, out. Meadowthorpe, place, 8 to 5; show, out. Forget Not, place, 3 to 2; show, out. Rebel Jack, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—B. f. by Prime Minister—Oeta Reed.
Post 10 minutes. Start good. The first two were driving hard. Lady Curzon was the best in the going and was the best ridden. She and Nettie Regent were the only actual contenders. The latter ran a very good race, which entitles her to future consideration, especially in mud. Princess Maleen tired badly. Larkspur finished strong. She seems to like a distance.

Winner—Ch. g. by Loyalty—Irony.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily. Loyalty got away with a flying start. He liked the soft going and was never in trouble. School Girl was slow to get going and ran a good race. Dictate showed early speed but stopped. Rarus would surely have done better with a more competent boy. Hand D. ran his race.

Winner—Ch. c. by St. Blaise—Susquehanna.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second the same. Great Bend seems to have benefited by his long rest. He came home like a good one after fighting with and shaking off Gold Fox. Kriss Kringle looked bad. He has seemingly lost his Newport form.
Scratched—12232 Carl C., 101.

Decoy, owing to his bad actions, was almost left at the post. He closed a big gap though after he got going. Gallardo quit badly. Prince Esher ran a good race for a beginner.
